

ROBIN: Thank you, thank you very much. This must be the most enthusiastic, most outrageous, and best-looking studio audience on television! Especially you, little doll – I dig those bobby socks. Let's kick off tonight's show by meeting our featured Bandstand Kids!

First up – she's America's sweetheart, and a black belt in Tae Kwon Do ... Betty Jo Riley!

BETTY: I break wood, not hearts!

ROBIN: Next, she's the girl next door, for real, she's my neighbor, Janice Hopkins!

JANICE: My mom says we should move.

ROBIN: And everyone's favorite heartthrob, a crooner with a voice of gold and eyes of blue, it's jumpin' Johnny James!

JOHNNY: (with a wink) Hi.

BARB: Be still my heart!

ROBIN: Now it's time to board the train to Coolsville, and get this show on the road, what d'ya say, kids?

(Kids applaud)

But first, you're watching At The Bandstand, and I'm you host.... Rockin' Robin!
